Dear Prospective Students,

Please take the opportunity to attend the California South Bay University's Open House. You will learn more about the college and how we provide individual support to encourage successful completion of a certification program. Come hear about rewarding careers in the medical, health, and technology fields, as well as, other certification programs we offer. California South Bay University is dedicated to helping you make a difference in your life. Tuition fees can be paid by governmental funding sources such as the Employment Development Department. We look forward to meeting you.
